This month completes the launch of our new website at radiofreeamsterdam.org

under the aegis of the John Sinclair Foundation at johnsinclair.us and celebrates the anniversary of the first John Sinclair Radio Show [#23] to be broadcast at Radio Free Amsterdam on January 1, 2005.

Our lineup continues to present great blues radio shows by Bruce Pingree, Cary Wolfson, and Scott Barretta, plus a new rebroadcast series of John Sinclair's Blues & Roots show for WWOZ in New Orleans; terrific jazz radio shows by George Klein, Leslie Keros, and John Sinclair; awesome soul and rhythm & blues from Bob Putignano, Lucille DJ, Martino D'Lorenzo, and Linda Lexy; and mind-stretching freeform radio shows from Steve The Fly, David Kunian, and our flagship program, The John Sinclair Radio Show.

You can tune in to our 24/7 stream at <http://streema.com> and ride the music around the clock—just like a real radio station.

JANUARY 2018 PROGRAM GUIDE

WHAT IS HAPPENING HERE JOHN SINCLAIR RADIO SHOW 23

To commemorate the launching of the new RadioFreeAmsterdam.org website on January 1, 2018, we'd like to present the first edition of the John Sinclair Radio Show for 2005, the first episode created under the aegis of Radio Free Amsterdam, founded January 1, 2005 by John Sinclair, Hank Botwinik, and the late Larry Hayden.

Episode 23 was conducted at the anti-squat arts space called What Is Happening Here in the former Hotel Groot next door to Amnesia on the Herengracht. In Amsterdam at that time, buildings and living spaces left unoccupied for one year could be claimed by squatters who moved in and lived rent-free until the owners were ready to do something with the space and took it back. Anti-squats are places vacated until the owners develop plans for future commercial uses and, in the interim, they recruit squatters of their own to prevent just anyone from taking over the space.

What Is Happening Here mastermind Job talks about their arts activities and then turns the discussion to the current anti-marijuana agitation being led by the Mayor of Maastricht, Job's home town. Smokey Johnson brings our opening theme, "It Ain't My Fault," and we've got musical selections from the Wild Magnolias with the Rebirth Brass Band, John Sinclair & Wayne Kramer, Magic Slim & the Teardrops, Sinclair with the D-Men, and the great Earl King.

OOL YA KOO JOHN SINCLAIR RADIO SHOW 738

Thirteen years later, Episode 738 is coming from Radio Free Amsterdam's Detroit headquarters in the Cass Corridor and aimed into the New Year as the first offering in our new RadioFreeAmsterdam.org programming year with music by Yusef Lateef, the Planet D Nonet featuring Keith Kaminski, Thelonious Monk, Ella Fitzgerald, Dizzy Gillespie, John Sinclair & His Blues Scholars, Bettye Lavette, Billy Davis, Ras Kente, Robert Bradley, Bob Baldori & Arthur Magliazza, Aretha Franklin, Was (Not Was), Andre Williams, and Charlie Parker.

AFRICA/BRASS
ANCESTOR WORSHIP 76

At the end of his two-year contract with Atlantic Records—his first as a bandleader in his own right—John Coltrane signed with Creed Taylor at Impulse Records, a brand new contemporary jazz imprint formed by ABC Records, and immediately went into the recording studio with the Quartet, Eric Dolphy and a large orchestra arranged and directed by McCoy Tyner and Dolphy. Actually their first date, at the Rudy Van Gelder Studio in Englewood Cliffs NJ on May 23, 1961, was made two days before the Ole Coltrane session for Atlantic on May 25, with the ensemble comprising Freddie Hubbard & Booker Little on trumpets; Jim Buffington, Donald Carrado, Bob Northern, Robert Swisshelm, and Julius Watkins (French horns); Charles Greenlee & Julian Priester (euphoniums); Bill Barber (tuba); John Coltrane (soprano & tenor saxophones); Eric Dolphy (alto saxophone, bass clarinet, flute, arranger, conductor); Pat Patrick (baritone saxophone); Garvin Bushell (reeds); McCoy Tyner (piano, arranger); Reggie Workman & Paul Chambers (bass), Elvin Jones (drums); Romulus Franceschini (conductor); and Cal Massey (arranger). They completed the recording on June 7, 1961 with some personnel changes, and we'll hear the master takes plus an alternative take of the title track to kick off this episode.
