Radio Free Amsterdam airs two hours of original programming every day and offers a continuous flow of music at the 24/7 stream on our website, so I advise you to do as I do and tune in to the stream where you can hear hour after hour of our unique programming on end.

This month the John Sinclair Radio Show features two more tributes to Charlie “Yardbird” Parker in celebration of his 100th birthday, plus a special program featuring Robert Jr. Whitall & Sugar Mae Owens of Big City Rhythm & Blues magazine talking with guitarist Elvin Bishop and playing music from his new 100 Years of Blues album with Charlie Musselwhite.

And please join me in congratulating and thanking deejays Leslie Keros and George Klein for contributing their 100th episode of Jazz At Daybreak and The Groove Yard, respectively, to Radio Free Amsterdam. You should be reminded at this juncture that all of our programmers and production staff contribute all their work to this important project of the John Sinclair Foundation, offered free to the public throughout the universe for the past fifteen years.

EASY LIVING
FLY BY NIGHT 386

Steve The Fly is on the cool and deadly side of classic jazz cuts from the dusty archives, mixed and selected on the fly for a rainy day. This is music to relax and think to—slices from giants John Coltrane, Miles Davis, Thelonious Monk, Charles Mingus, Sonny Rollins, Eddie Jefferson, Sun Ra, The Meters, Kenny Burrell, Yusef Lateef, Salah Ragab, and The Modern Jazz Quartet. All cuts from vinyl.

Tuesday, November 3

Burroughs, Eric Salzman, the Andre Previn Trio, and the Duke Ellington-Charles Mingus-Max Roach trio.

“This land is no man’s land. This land you walk on is no man’s land. And you know it’s only your buryin’ ground. And this world don’t belong to no one man. You’re living on borrowed time. You may have money and everything, you may own land, but you got to leave it all behind. This land you walk on—you’re walkin’ on your buryin’ ground. We all are. Everybody fightin’ over this land—all over the world—this land is your buryin’ ground. You oughta be ashamed to be fightin’ over your buryin’ ground. This land is no man’s land.”
