Our internet radio station offers a continuous flow of music on the 24/7 stream at our website where you can click the button and listen just like a real radio station.

Our February schedule replicates the lineup for January with one new twist: we've added a mostly talk with a little music show featuring Ph.D. conversationalists Jojo & Stella exploring the concept of journeys and powerspots on Sunday nights after everything else is over for the week.

Our popular jazz show by George Klein from 1991, The Groove Yard, hits the 200-episode mark this month, Face The Music with arwulf arwulf reaches number 200 as well, and next month Steve The Fly will make 500 Fly By Nights and John Sinclair will hit the 1000 mark since his show began in 2004.

The only big change from last month is that it's Mardi Gras time in New Orleans and we've got several programs in the lineup to reflect this great holiday.

FEBRUARY 2023 PROGRAM GUIDE

Monday, February 6
HEATIN' IT UP
JOHN SINCLAIR RADIO SHOW 992

Episode 992 is coming from Radio Free Amsterdam headquarters in Detroit's Cass Corridor with an hour of music from the great guitarist, singer and bandleader Walter "Wolfman" Washington, to commemorate his passing from throat cancer at his home in New Orleans in December at the age of 78. This hour is drawn from his earlier albums Leader of the Pack, Wolf at the Door, and a collection called Eddie Bo's Funky Funky New Orleans. I'm sure there'll be another album or two of his later works as the year deepens and my memories of the Wolfman thicken, because he was not only—in my humble opinion—the leading bluesman and led the leading blues band of the 21st Century, but he waone of my closest personal friends, and I will continue to miss him like crazy for a long time into the future. Like all great art, though, his music will live forever!

INTERPLANETARY MUSIC
FLY BY NIGHT 495

Steve The Fly offers an hour of exemplary music by Sun Ra & His Arkestra, "so sit back, relax, and let's blast off into the unknown together."

GO GET YOUR BIG CHIEF
JOHN SINCLAIR RADIO SHOW 994+

I was at Unified Indian Practice at the Handa Wanda club at 2nd & Dryades on the evening of Sunday, January 27, 2008, when I decided to whip out my compact digital recorder and take down the proceedings, which were centered on Big Chief Little Bo of the Wild Magnolias, Big Chief Roddy of the Black Eagles, and assorted Indian singers who took over the mike from time to time in front of the massive drum choir on the stage behind them. I recorded again the next Sunday, when it was "Two More Days" until Mardi Gras, and then chopped the results down to an hour's worth of Wild Indian music.

Monday, February 20
THEY CALL US WILD

BLOW MR. DEXTER
THE GROOVE YARD 203

George Klein presents the first hour of a feature on tenor saxophonist Dexter Gordon, focusing on his early recordings in the 1940s that show the then-new influence of bebop combined with elements of rhythm & blues. The recordings were made for release as 78 rpm singles under his own name and as by Bud Powell, Leo Parker, Fats Navarro, and Wardell Gray. The appearance of Dexter's name in many of the song titles was the idea of the record producer, Teddy Reig, who thought it was a good way to get publicity for the young musician.

Friday, February 24
